

This Is Me

She casually went to work on a Sunday
Her innocent body changed in a blink of an eye
This moment would change her life forever
She was only 16 when this happened
She felt like a dead rose
She felt vulnerable, anger, hatred
She found cocaine, weed, wax, Bombay Sapphire
She faced several difficulties along the way:
Intoxication, overdose, heartbreak
She broke into millions of pieces
She felt like a dead rose
Until one day she couldn't feel pain
This girl was on the verge of suicide
She had abnormal breathing, vomiting, weakness, bleeding
She looked like a ghost
Then a miracle happened...
Four months later she had been fully recovered
And now she is on her journey to becoming a mom
She knew she wasn't ready to leave this world
Because of this tragedy
This Is Me
