

Resolution #21/22-55:
Resolution to Adopt the Declaration of the Rights of All Students to Equity in Arts Learning

WHEREAS, Conejo Valley Unified School District School Board acknowledges that arts learning – which includes dance, music, theatre, and visual and media arts – is an essential part of a comprehensive education for all students, pre-K-12, to prepare them for college, career and life.

WHEREAS, arts learning promotes critical thinking and problem-solving skills, supports overall academic achievement and nurtures skills that help all students in Conejo Valley Unified School District succeed in school and in life.

WHEREAS Conejo Valley Unified School District School Board recognizes that particular groups of students experience significant barriers to access, participation and success in arts learning and that these barriers are directly linked to historical, persistent and pervasive inequities in our educational system.

WHEREAS, we do adopt this declaration as follows:

Declaration of the Rights of All Students to Equity in Arts Learning

1. The right to equitable access to pre-K-12, coherent and sequential standards-based arts learning that is part of the core curriculum and that provides both integrated and discrete visual and performing arts learning opportunities; and the right to equitable outcomes as a result of this access, without distinction on account of race, culture, language, religion, national origin, geographical location or legal status.

Every student in the Conejo Valley Unified School District has the right to participate and succeed in high-quality courses in all the arts disciplines as part of their basic education, regardless of their background, culture, language or place of residence.

2. The right to special protection for every student's artistic and aesthetic development.
The right to protection from policies and practices that exclude or preclude certain students or populations from equitable access to and success in powerful and coherent arts learning pre-K-12.

All students have the same right to fully develop their creative potential at every grade level and to not be excluded for any reason.

3. The right to arts learning that is culturally and linguistically responsive and relevant, with particular attention to those populations that have traditionally been excluded or precluded, such as English Learners, students of color, foster youth, homeless youth, students in poverty, migrant students and special needs students.

All students have the right to engage in arts education that reflects, respects and builds on their culture, language and background.

4. The right to arts learning programs that are supported with resources – including qualified administrators, teachers, teaching artists and other staff; adequate materials; and appropriate facilities – to support powerful culturally and linguistically responsive arts learning.

All students have the right to receive resources in dance, music, theatre, and media and visual arts, including the right supplies and facilities and especially qualified teachers and curriculum that honors all cultures and languages.

5. The right to educators, leaders and parents/community who are knowledgeable about the intrinsic and extrinsic benefits of arts learning for individual students, families/communities, the nation and global society.

All students have the right to be supported by leaders in their community and school who understand the benefits of an arts education to prepare them for college, career and life.

6. The right to be brought up in school and community environments that value and protect the arts and equity as essential to the full development of every student and that demonstrate those values/beliefs in their public policies and practices.

All students have the right to learn and practice the arts in a positive environment where everyone understands and acts on the knowledge that they are engaging in valuable and important work.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Conejo Valley Unified School District School Board recognizes the powerful impact that an arts curriculum has in the cognitive and social development of students and its role as an essential component of a comprehensive education;

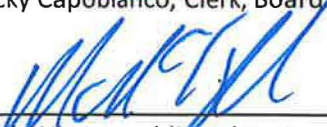

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Conejo Valley Unified School District School Board adopts this Declaration and commits to taking the following actions:

- Develop a multi-year Strategic Arts Plan (TK-12) to create a visionary, sustainable Art Education plan to increase the support for access and equity to arts education for all students.
- Post the Arts Equity District badge on the district’s website and social media channels.
- Support students to have access to and participate in visual and performing arts courses that will help promote academic achievement, express creativity and foster social development.
- Continue to review our district’s secondary-level schools data in the California Arts Education Data Project to analyze and understand where we currently stand and report the findings at a future board meeting.
- Dedicate appropriate resources – such as utilizing academic materials that align with state standards, creating or adding staff positions and providing suitable facilities that allow our students to participate in visual and performing arts learning.
- Promote arts learning that honors all cultures and languages by developing staff capacities, identifying community resources and creating opportunities for students to contribute to the design of their learning.

Adopted by the Conejo Valley Unified School District Board of Education

Date: 6-14-22

_____
Rocky Capobianco, Clerk, Board of Education

_____
Mark W. McLaughlin, Ed.D., Superintendent and Secretary to the Board